THE GOOD NEWS PAPER

PRAYER LETTER OF CHALLENGE LITERATURE FELLOWSHIP

December 2009

Prepared by Multi Ministries Zimbabwe — Rev Jabulani Mudenda

After having spent a week at the REAP Conference where we enjoyed ourselves tremendously, we came back to Zimbabwe together with a team of young people from the Rosebank Union church. The team came in on the 6th of December and spent the next 8 days embarking on door to door outreaches, community work and ministering in various ways to the people of Bulawayo. On the third day of their mission the team, which comprised 26 young people, together with other local young people distributed the Challenge Newspaper around the city and managed to distribute and handout over 16000 copies of the Newspaper.

The distribution went very well, many churches welcomed these young people in their churches so that they could conduct the distribution, the Challenge was welcomed with open arms across the city, individuals who also received the newspaper responded very well. After the distribution process we received 108 responses in two days, with people calling in and sending text messages. "I lost my wife 3weeks ago and was planning to take my own life too. This morning I came across three young people distributing this newspaper which I went through for over an hour and I came across a statement which said 'Will God love someone like me?' and I had to talk to someone for my life had changed completely, I'm glad

PLEASE TURN OVER

I came across this newspaper through these young people.” Yet another man who came across the team distributing the Challenge came to our offices also asking whether God could love someone like him. We sat down with him, heard his story tralian team, Dr Harold Peasley and Multi Ministries South Africa for making it possible that we too receive this wonderful paper.

Finally, we would like to thank all the sponsors, the prayer partners and all the supporters for making the Challenge newspaper what it is, without you the paper would not reach Zimbabwe. We have come to realize that there is a great need of this paper here in Zimbabwe, it is easy to read, easy to use and very useful, many have come to Christ because of the Challenge Newspaper, thank you and may God bless you.

and afterwards prayed with him and offered him some discipleship material to help him start his brand new life with Christ.

This outreach showed us how spiritually desperate our Zimbabwean people are and the need is so great. Please send us more of this wonderful newspaper.

Our appreciation goes to Carl Carmody and the Aus-
